THE STORY BEHIND THE BREAD

JEWISH RYE BREAD

It seems there is a great story behind every loaf we make. For Jewish Rye it's a pretty simple one. Whenever my family is on the road and need a lunch or dinner we often find ourselves in a Deli. One of us always orders a Ruben sandwich and we judge the Deli based on how good the Ruben is. Well after eating countless Ruben sandwiches from Delis from all over I decided I'd make a loaf of Jewish Rye so I could make the best Ruben right at home. I studied many recipes and came up with one full of flavor. I use two different rye flours and a very nice olive oil.

So now you can make the best Ruben right at home. Just pile on the corn-beef, sauerkraut, Swiss cheese and your choice of Thousand Island or Russian dressing.

After tasting a Ruben on my Great Harvest Jewish Rye you may never be able to order one from the Deli again! It's that good!!!

Cheers, Dan

MARGHERITA

PIZZA BREAD

Made with:

- Fresh Mozzarella
- Fresh Tomatoes
- Fresh Basil
- Fresh Onion
- Olive Oil

My wife, Heather, makes an amazing Margherita Pizza at home. The kids love it. I love it. The whole family loves it. As I was working one day I thought there had to be away to make a loaf taste that good. So after many tries and working closely with my crew we found the perfect match.

We start by flattening out our dough then add fresh mozzarella cheese, fresh tomato, fresh basil, and fresh onion. We liberally base the loaf with a nice olive oil which we infuse with oregano and garlic, fold it over many times and wala, Great Harvest Margherita Pizza bread is born!

With all of the fresh ingredients this one is best to keep in the fridge. Best to toast or broil before eating. The flavor is wonderful with all of the fresh ingredients. Add a salad and you have a meal.
