THE STORY BEHIND THE BREAD

GREAT HARVEST CHALLAH

When we moved out here from Utah we had never heard of Challah. Well we are sure glad we did! It's our #1 selling bread. The first recipe we had was horrible so we talked to many Jewish mother's and found exactly what they were looking for. They wanted a light, fluffy loaf with a hint of sweetness. Plus it had to be yellow from the egg, not food coloring like so many other places use. So we got to work & combined the best ingredients:

- Unbromated and Unbleached wheat flour
- Egg Yolks
- Filtered Water
- Honey
- Yeast
- Salt

The finish product is so delicious I have a group of costumers who call it "Crack Challah!!!" They just can't stop eating this delicious bread.

Available:

- Challah—Daily
- Cinn. Chip Challah—everyday but Wed.
- Butterscotch Challah—Wed. & Fri.
- Golden Raisin Challah—Friday

Many thanks to those who pushed us to make the challah they so wanted.

Cheers, Dan & Heather

YUMMY PUMPKIN

October, you know, is Pumpkin month for many. And we love pumpkin too. We make our Pumpkin Chocolate Chip teacake all year long! If we didn't, we would have a munity.

We affectionately call Pumpkin Choc.

Chip "Pumpkin Yumpkin" because it is so yummy!

As far as I know Pumpkin Yumpkin was first coined by Jack Corkey. Jack was the first Great Harvest Bread Co. east of the Mississippi. He and Laura built and paved the way for more stores to come east. Their original store is in Herndon VA and still thriving.

Pumpkin items this month:

- Pumpkin Chocolate Chip Teacake—Daily
- Pumpkin Spice Teacake—Daily
- Pumpkin Choc. Chip Cookies—Daily
- Pumpkin Oh (pumpkin roll W/cream cheese frosting—Daily
- Pumpkin Swirl loaf—Tuesday, & Saturday

Cheers, Dan & Heather
